

Kindergarten Reading Comprehension: The Red Hen

Kindergarten - very short story comprehension | 10 minutes

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read the passage:

A little red hen had three eggs. She kept them warm in her nest. One sunny day, the eggs went crack, crack, crack! Out came three soft yellow chicks. The hen was so happy. She showed her chicks how to peck for seeds in the grass.

Read the story. Then answer each question. You can point to the words that tell you the answer.

1. What color was the hen?

2. How many eggs did she have?

3. What came out of the eggs?

4. What did the hen show her chicks how to do?

Challenge

5. How do you think the hen felt? Why?
